

Center for Equity and Social Justice

Diana Roman

Submitted by Alondra Lazaro Gonzalez

Diana is an outstanding student worker of the Center for Equity and Social Justice (CESJ) and makes a positive impact in the Office of Equity team and our SBCC community. Diana takes pride in her cultural background and often shares her experiences of being from Tabasco, Mexico. Diana strives everyday to nurture all students and serves as a leader within the community. In fact, Diana has served the SBCC community through the emergency food distributions during the entire pandemic, as well as actively involved in the planning of the Paint and Sip event hosted by the CESJ. Diana contributes in creating a positive workplace everyday she is present. We honor you Diana and are very proud to have you on the Equity team.
